

Newcastle E-Alert

DATE: August 22, 2008
TO: Community E-Alert Recipients
FROM: Chief Melinda Irvine
SUBJECT: E-Alert # 08-06 – Car Prowlers Arrested

Overnight August 17—18, 2008

Newcastle Police arrested two males in the area of SE 70th St and 125th Ave SE for possession of stolen property. Some of the items had been stolen in car prowls and possibly garage burglaries in the area. Detectives are investigating further.

If you were a victim of a car prowler or garage burglary that you have not already reported, you may report your loss by calling 206-296-3311. If you have any other information that may assist in this investigation, you may call Detective Carrie Andersen directly @ (206) 296-3887, or the police department at City Hall, (425) 649-4444 – X-120.

To help prevent car prowls:

- Close all windows and lock your car; do not leave keys in the vehicle
- Remove all loose items from the vehicle, especially items of value such as laptop computers, GPS units, and purses
- Park your vehicle in a well lit area

If you observe suspicious activity around vehicles, please call 911 to have an officer respond.