

Newcastle E-Alert

DATE: September 10, 2008
TO: Newcastle Businesses
FROM: Chief Melinda Irvine
SUBJECT: Community E-Alert # 08-07 – ARREST MADE IN ROBBERY CASE

On September 9, 2008, a 20-year-old Bellevue man was arrested and booked in the King County Jail for the July 3, 2008 robbery of the Papa Murphy's in Newcastle. The suspect has a history of criminal activity in Bellevue. The investigation into the July 5, 2008 Baskin Robbins robbery continues.

If you have any information that may help with the investigations of these robberies, please call Detective Thien Do with the King County Sheriff's Office Major Crimes Unit at (206) 296-7530, the Newcastle Police Department at City Hall, (425) 649-4444, ext. 120 or the non-emergency police dispatch number, (206) 296-3311.

Any time you see suspicious activity do not hesitate to call 911 or the non-emergency dispatch number, (206) 296-3311 for an officer to investigate.